

YOU'RE INVITED

Open Forum Discussion with Dr. Bill Mahanna

DATE: Tuesday, March 10, 2020
LOCATION: Holiday Inn Pembina South Winnipeg
1330 Pembina HWY, Winnipeg, MB

-
- 10:30 am: Registration
11:00 am: Pioneer Forage Program Overview / Managing Silage for High Producing Cows
12:00 pm: Lunch
1:00 pm: Q & A with Dr. Mahanna
- Nutrition and pile management for frozen and unfermented corn, dry silage
  - Navigating through the noise – Leafy / Floury Traits
  - Best ways to establish alfalfa and when to reseed (harsh springs)
  - Silage populations: lignin in stalks and other factors
  - The fit for intercropping / companion cropping in silage production
- 3:00 pm: Adjourn

Dr. Bill Mahanna: Ph.D., Dipl ACAN, Nutritional Sciences Manager, Pioneer

Dr. Bill Mahanna co-leads a group of Pioneer nutritionists from across North America and Europe. He provides technical leadership for on-farm nutritional troubleshooting, how Pioneer nutritionally profiles and develops maize, lucerne and forage additive products (inoculants) to meet the needs of the livestock industry. Currently a collaborative faculty member in the Department of Animal Sciences at Iowa State University, his articles appear regularly in various dairy publications such as Feedstuffs, Hoard's Dairyman, Dairy Today and Dairy Herd Management.

Contact your Pioneer Sales Representative to confirm your attendance.